[Jesus said to the blind man:]

We have to keep doing the work of the One who sent me while it's still light out.

Night is coming, when nobody can work.

As long as I'm in the world, I'm the world's light.

When he said that, he spat on the ground, and made mud from the spit.

Then he smeared it on his eyes, and said to him,

Go wash in the Pool of Siloam.

(Siloam means "Sent.")

So he went off and washed, and he left seeing.
